ORDER REGARDING SCHEDULE FOR PRODUCTION OF TRANSACTIONAL DATA BY THIRD PARTIES

WHEREAS, in October 2005 and June 2006, the parties served subpoenas on various third parties seeking, among other things, transactional data;

WHEREAS, the parties have since engaged in individual negotiations with the third parties regarding the production of the requested transactional data;

WHEREAS, the date for the plaintiffs in the consolidated class actions ("Class Plaintiffs") to file their motion for class certification is July 6, 2007;

WHEREAS, Class Plaintiffs contend that the requested transactional data is important to the issue of class certification;

WHEREAS, Class Plaintiffs also contend that they require sufficient time to analyze the transactional data prior to filing their motion for class certification;

WHEREAS, the Special Master previously ordered that all third party negotiations relating to document production should be completed on or before December 21, 2006; and

WHEREAS, the date for the parties to negotiate an agreement with third parties with respect to the production of transactional data was extended until February 21, 2007;

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

1. The deadline for third parties (that were previously served with a subpoena) to produce transactional data is March 14, 2007. Motion practice on any outstanding discovery issues, including transactional data, may commence thereafter.
2. A telephonic status conference is scheduled for February 22, 2007 at 11:00 a.m. EST, during which the parties shall report to the Special Master on the status of their negotiations.
3. The parties shall provide a copy of this Order to all third parties that were served with a subpoena seeking transactional data in October 2005 or June 2006.
